

SCRUBBY RISE

When the Wirra Wirra tribe built a viewing platform to take in the majestic outlook over our Scrubby Rise vineyard, it was soon christened The Jetty. The fact this structure overlooks sedentary vines and not a raging sea, seemed somehow appropriate given Greg Trott's decision all those years ago to name a flat, barren landscape Scrubby Rise.

Vintage Region Sub Region

2014 Adelaide Langhorne Creek

Grape Variety

Shiraz (58%), Cabernet (35%) and Petit Verdot (7%)

Colour

Deep plum with a bright crimson edge.

Bouquet

The nose is led by the full, bright red berry fruits of shiraz and balance by the leafiness of cabernet and lifted florals of petit verdot.

Palate

Juicy, succulent raspberry, blueberry and cassis sweetness surround the fine and supple tannins. A bright, medium bodied palate with length and immediate appeal.

Drink

Drink now to 5 years.

Food Match

Baked enchiladas with chorizo, smokey beef and black bean.

Vinification

Individual vineyard parcels were crushed and destemmed to stainless static red fermenters. Pumpovers were tailored daily, dependent upon levels of colour, flavour and tannin extraction. Once the desired level were achieved the ferment was pressed with fermentation finished in stainless steel prior to malo-lactic fermentation. A select parcels underwent maturation in seasoned French and American oak before blending.
